DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

In a series of revelations made to Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, our Lord called for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Today, we know that feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by Pope Saint John Paul II at the canonization of Saint Faustina on April 30, 2000.

The Divine Mercy image of Jesus (at right) has red and pale blue rays streaming from his side, symbolizing the blood and water that flowed from the spear wound while Jesus was on the cross. The glorious rays speak to the healing graces for sinners who turn to Jesus with trust. The image is accompanied by the prayer: “Jesus, I trust in You!” Allow the image to invite you to trust in Jesus and to perform Works of Mercy. Let us take this Divine Mercy Sunday to be merciful to others as our Lord has been merciful to us.

DOMINGO DE LA DIVINA MISERICORDIA

La fiesta de la Divina Misericordia viene de una devoción que nació en Polonia con la Hermana Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938) canonizada en el 2000. La devoción a la Divina Misericordia se celebra el Segundo Domingo de Pascua y durante todo el año orando la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia. En latinoamérica se ha ido extendiendo esta devoción desde 1978 cuando fue aprobada por el Papa Paulo VI. En todas partes se puede encontrar la imagen de la Divina Misericordia (vea a arriba), Jesús de pie con rayos rojos y blanco-azules que brillan desde su corazón hacia el mundo. Lleva el lema: Jesús, confío en ti.

La finalidad de esta devoción es recordar al pecador que la misericordia de Dios es infinita e inagotable. Es una misericordia que debemos imitar para que la paz pueda reinar en nuestros corazones y en nuestra tierra.

WELCOMED INTO THE CHURCH

Congratulations to the six adults who completed their journey in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and were welcomed into full membership in the Catholic Church Saturday, April 20 at the Easter Vigil: Bobby Borges, Bethany Bruno, Pamela DiCarlantonio, Felix Dominguez, Beth Heaton, and Lisa Michalak. We welcome them and ask that you remember them in your prayers and greet them warmly when you see them. It is always a joyous moment when the Church grows and the parish family gets even larger. RCIA began with a cookout last October and continued with six months of weekly classes. Special thanks to Program Directors Dan Plovanich and Tom Donnelly who led classes.

Mission Statement: Queen of Angels is a Christian Community joined in one Catholic Faith and nourished by the same sacramental life. We celebrate the diversity of our people through our spiritual life, sharing of faith and knowledge, enjoyment of one another, the concern for human needs and the stewardship of all we have. We undertake this challenge as Disciples of Jesus guided by His word and strengthened by His love.
We Pray for the Deceased...

We Pray For...

RENEW MY CHURCH: ARE THERE MORE THOMASES AMONG US TODAY?

“Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.” (John 20:19-31)

At the information session for Renew My Church on April 6, we considered some of the reasons why renewal is needed, not the least of which is a steady decline in faith practices that stretches back decades. There are many issues that people cite as a catalyst for leaving the Church or lapsing in their faith. The pain and suffering of the abuse crisis and failure in leadership amongst some has been reason enough for some to walk away or refrain from (re)entering. There are also the age-old allurements and noon-day devils that cause people to drift away from the faith of their youth. And there are also issues and challenges of a personal nature that only God can see within people’s hearts.

But there are also people who leave the Church not because they reject her teachings or doctrines or even because of the scandals – they leave because they want more than what they’re experiencing. In some way, they doubt that Jesus is present within their own parish. For those of us who know and love and serve our Lord present in the sacraments, this may be difficult to get our minds or hearts around. But it’s a reality for some.

Before his election as Pope Francis, then Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio and the bishops of Latin America studied the reasons why Catholics leave the Church to join Evangelical Protestant groups. Below is very short summation of what they found cited in their report known as the Aparecida Document. Among those who left the Church to join other faith communities did so because they:

- Never experienced a profound and intense personal encounter with Jesus Christ
- Did not have meaningful community life where they felt accepted, valued, visible, included
- Had an unmet desire for biblical and doctrinal formation as something that brings spiritual growth (not merely as theoretical formation and cold knowledge)
- Were seeking a missionary commitment that moves church members from the pews to go out and meet those on the periphery

As you read these points, ask yourself if you identify with any of them. Does this sound like anyone you know who has drifted away or decided to join a different faith community?

If we can understand why it is that many people leave, especially those who are searching for a stronger connection to Christ, a community, and a missionary impulse, we can begin to see where it is that renewal is needed within our own parishes. So, where do we start? More to come. As always, for more information, visit RenewMyChurch.org, or ask me. — Monsignor Jim Kaczorowski, Pastor

RENUEVA MI IGLESIA: ¿HAY TOMASES ENTRE NOSOTROS EN LA ACTUALIDAD

“Tomás, llamado el Gemelo, uno de los Doce, no estaba con ellos cuando Jesús vino. Entonces los otros discípulos le dijeron: “Hemos visto al Señor”. Pero él les dijo: “A menos que vea la marca de los clavos en sus manos y ponga mi dedo en la marca de los clavos y ponga mi mano en su costado, no lo creeré.” (Juan 20:19-31)

En la sesión informativa de Renueva mi Iglesia el 6 de abril, pusimos en consideración algunas de las razones por las que se necesita una renovación, y una de ellas es una disminución constante de la práctica de la fe que se remonta a décadas. Hay muchas razones que las personas citan como un catalizador para dejar la Iglesia o perder su fe. La crisis por el dolor y el sufrimiento por los abusos y el frazaco en el liderazgo entre algunos otros, han sido motivo suficiente para que algunos se alejen o se abstengan de volver. También están las distracciones de la edad y demonios que los distraen para que se alejen de la fe. Sin olvidar que también hay problemas y desafíos de naturaleza personal que solo Dios puede ver dentro de los corazones de las personas.

Pero también hay personas que abandonan la Iglesia no porque rechacen sus enseñanzas o doctrinas, ni siquiera por los escándalos, sino porque quieren más de lo que están experimentando. De alguna manera, dudan que Jesús esté presente dentro de su propia parroquia. Para aquellos de nosotros que conocemos, amamos y servimos a nuestro Señor presente en los sacramentos, esto puede ser difícil de lograr en nuestras mentes o corazones. Pero es una realidad para algunos.

Antes de su elección como Papa Francisco, el cardenal Jorge Bergoglio y los obispos de Latinoamérica analizaron razones por las cuales los católicos abandonan la Iglesia para unirse a los grupos evangélicos protestantes. A continuación, se presenta un resumen muy breve de lo que encontraron citado en su informe conocido como el Documento de Aparecida. Entre los que dejaron la Iglesia para unirse a otras comunidades de fe lo hicieron porque:

- Nunca experimentaron un encuentro personal profundo e intenso con Jesucristo
- No tuvieron una vida en comunidad significativa donde pudieran sentirse aceptados, valorados, visibles, e incluidos
- Tenían un deseo insatisfecho de formación bíblica y doctrinal como algo que trae crecimiento espiritual (no precisamente formación teóric a y conocimiento frío)
- Buscaban actividades misioneras que movieran a los miembros de la iglesia de las bancas para salir y encontrarse con los más necesitados

Al leer estos puntos, pregúntese si se identifica con alguno de ellos. ¿Sueña esto como alguien que conoce que se ha alejado o ha decidido unirse a una comunidad de fe diferente?

Si podemos entender por qué muchas personas se van, especialmente aquellas que buscan una conexión más fuerte con Cristo, una comunidad y un impulso misionero, podemos comenzar a ver dónde es necesaria la renovación dentro de nuestras propias parroquias. ¿Así que por dónde comenzamos? Más por venir. Como siempre, para obtener más información, visite nuestro sitio web RenewMyChurch.org, o pregúnteme. — Monseñor Jim Kaczorowski, Párroco

TIME FOR SCHOOL SUPPLIES DRIVE

Education can break the cycle of poverty that traps many of our neighbors. You can help by supporting children in our area who receive a boost of confidence and the necessary items for a successful start to the school year through the Society of St. Vincent De Paul. We ask for your support now as this is the time of year we need to place our wholesale order to get the best prices. A donation of $20 will support one child, a donation of $600 will support an entire classroom of children! Donations may be placed in the Poor Box or through Give Central, or by check sent to SVDP through the Parish. If your employer offers to match your charitable contribution, please submit the necessary form with your donation and we’ll do the rest. May God bless you.

SCHOOL BOARD NOMINATIONS

Self-nominations are being sought for candidates for our School Board, which advises the Pastor and the Principal on policies and budgets as well as acting as a promotional team for our parish school. All Board nominees must:

• not be regular full-time salaried employees of the parish or school or members of their immediate family (parent, spouse, child, sibling or in-law);
• not be in the same household as other Board members;
• have attended at least one Board meeting prior to election.

All five of the open positions on the School Board are for a three-year term. The next School Board meeting is at 7 p.m. this Monday, April 29 at the Parish Center, 4412 N. Western. Self-nomination forms were due to the school office by last Friday, April 26. Forms and eligibility info can be found in background packets available online at bit.ly/2GtrVDZ. Eligible voters in the election include all adult registered parishioners and all parents of current students at Queen of Angels School. Ballots and profiles for voting will be at church on the next two weekends, May 4-5 and 11-12.

MUSICAL NOTES

We hope you will mark your calendars for the Queen of Angels Choir Festival at the 5 p.m. Mass on Saturday, May 18. Each year at the end of the choir season, the Cherub, Chorister, and Adult Choirs from Masses in English will combine in a celebration of another year of leading our musical prayer. With about 70 people involved in weekly musical endeavors, this represents many hours of committed service.

This year the festival is on the Fifth Sunday of Easter, which gives us an opportunity to present a choral masterpiece that corresponds exactly to the Second Reading. Edgar Bainton’s setting of And I Saw a New Heaven exquisitely expresses John’s words in Revelation 21. If you do not know this piece, you will want to be sure to be present to hear one of the greatest marriages of text and music ever created. Besides the Bainton, the choirs will also sing Ubi Caritas by Ola Gjielo (yet another wonderful combination of text and music) and several favorites from the 2018-2019 choir season.
