“THAT ALL MAY BE ONE”
Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, January 18-25
The cause of Church unity is commended to Christians for prayer and action every year around this time. This week is not so much to focus on the many divisions within the Christian family, but on bonds of faith and mission. Even though Christians have always shown an inclination to fracture, spin off, and mutate into new expressions, recent history shows some new points of convergence and agreement. Catholics are now more firmly rooted in the Word of God, for example, and many Protestants are more likely to celebrate Communion than in years past. Some denominations are merging and pooling resources, and people from various traditions are collaborating on projects.

The call of this week is to be mindful of the diversity of our traditions and customs while treasuring what we hold in common. Sometimes our differences bring delight and amusement. If someone says, “Let us pray,” a Catholic might close the eyes, bow the head and fold hands; a Protestant may reach out and clasp hands with the person in the next chair; and someone belonging to an Orthodox tradition might stand up with eyes wide open. Each has taken a different path, but the goal is always the same. This is a week not for focusing on the well-worn paths of divergence, but for mutual delight in a common goal: unity as members of Christ’s body.

Mission Statement: Queen of Angels is a Christian Community joined in one Catholic Faith and nourished by the same sacramental life. We celebrate the diversity of our people through our spiritual life, sharing of faith and knowledge, enjoyment of one another, the concern for human needs and the stewardship of all we have. We undertake this challenge as Disciples of Jesus guided by His word and strengthened by His love.

MASS FOR LOST CHILDREN

A Mass for Lost Children will be celebrated at 11 a.m. on Sunday, January 19. This annual Mass honors the memory of any children that have been lost to members of our parish community. Any who are mourning children of any age or relation, for any reason — such as illness, suicide, accident, miscarriage, abduction, abortion or violence — are invited to pray with us, and allow our parish community to pray for you and for your precious child.

Prayer intentions for individual children may be written at any time in the parish petitions book, which is located on a stand in the back aisle of the church, near the hymnal carts. Help us to remember all the children who have touched us, heal us from their loss and celebrate the lives they led on earth as well as their new lives in God’s merciful embrace.

The Mass is hosted by the Respect Life Committee.

RENUEVA MI IGLESIA:
¿POR QUÉ NECESITAMOS LA RENOVACIÓN?
“Porque yo sé muy bien lo que haré por ustedes; les quiero dar paz y no desgracia, y un porvenir lleno de esperanza.” — Jeremías 29:11
Con confianza en nuestro Señor, seguimos adelante guiados por el Espíritu Santo hacia nuestro futuro. ¿Qué sigue para nuestra parroquia? Ahora que conocemos que las parroquias de San Matías y Reina de los Ángeles combinarán en julio, el próximo esfuerzo apoyará esta transición.
- Un equipo especial de la Arquidiócesis brindará apoyo para que la implementación sea efectiva y positiva en todos los cambios necesarios, así como la planificación financiera y de instalaciones. Los miembros del equipo visitarán en los próximos meses para presentarse, y proporcionar una visión general del proceso y recopilar retroalimentación del personal de ambas parroquias.
- Se proporcionará orientación específica y significativa con respecto al proceso de elegir un nombre para la parroquia. Reconocemos que este es un cambio por naturaleza emocional y personal. Pues estaremos presenciando el nacimiento de una comunidad parroquial nueva y unificada.
- Tendremos varias oportunidades dentro de la parroquia y liturgia para reflexionar y compartir.

Cada vez que demos un paso adelante, debemos seguir recordándonos por qué la renovación es tan importante para nuestra parroquia, nuestras familias y nuestra propia vida de fe. Mira a su alrededor y ¿qué ve Ud.? Cada año menos personas asisten regularmente a la Misa. Un número creciente de personas que optan por rechazar cualquier afiliación religiosa. Un mundo tan lastimado que ni siquiera se da cuenta que lo está.
- Jesús nos llama a seguirlo más de cerca y buscar a sus ovejas perdidas. Como católicos bautizados en la vida y el amor de Dios, somos llamados (y comisionados) a discernir nuestra parte para crear discípulos. ¿Qué debemos hacer para asegurarnos de que no somos los últimos católicos en nuestras familias? ¿Cómo evangelizamos a otros en la comunidad y promovemos/fomentamos las vocaciones al sacerdocio, a la vida religiosa y al matrimonio?
- Los recursos tan pequeños y limitados han hecho que se convierta en un desafío para los ministerios parroquiales; incluso las parroquias con recursos abundantes luchan para involucrar a los jóvenes y a los adultos jóvenes. Cristo nos llama a discernir qué significa la vitalidad de la parroquia y la escuela en el mundo de hoy y a construir comunidades. ¿Cómo podemos trabajar unidos, en las parroquias y en toda la Arquidiócesis, para fortalecernos mutuamente y crear comunidades católicas que sean sostenibles para el futuro?
- Como cristianos, llevamos la luz y la esperanza de Cristo al mundo. Así como Jesús se movió entre la gente, el Papa Francisco nos ruega que salgamos al mundo y a los que están marginados. ¿Cómo podemos trabajar unidos para crear nuevos caminos para inspirar testigos dentro de un mundo que está adormecido ante la presencia real de Dios? Por favor, continúen orando por estos esfuerzos.
WHO LIKES TO GOLF?

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT dePAUL REFLECTS
In the Gospel today, John the Baptist testifies that after Jesus was baptized, he “saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him.”

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent dePaul Poor Box, know that you are a sign of God’s spirit of love to those who are suffering. The Poor Box is located at the top of the main stairs into the church, near the flags.

PREVENTING ELDER ABUSE AT HOME
Elder abuse at home may occur for a variety of reasons, but it becomes even more likely if the elder’s caregiver is stressed, overworked, or untrustworthy. For this reason, individuals may help prevent the abuse of an older adult living at home by reaching out to both the older adult and the caregiver. Loved ones may help prevent elder abuse in the home by taking some important steps.

- Keeping elders engaged in their communities: Seniors with strong friendships and community involvement are less likely to be isolated or lonely — traits that increase an elder’s risk of being taken advantage of.
- If your loved one is in a facility: Visit frequently; this lets the staff know you are keeping an eye on things. Observe for any unusual skin tears or bruises, and report to nursing staff immediately. Feel free to go to supervisor or administrator if you suspect any abuse. There are phone numbers posted in facilities to report abuse to the state.
- Supporting primary caregivers: When multiple trusted adults share caregiving duties or provide emotional, financial, and other forms of support, it can greatly lower the stress of caring for an elderly loved one.
- Keeping elders active: Elderly people in poor physical health are more vulnerable to being taken advantage of. In addition, increased dependence may lead to more caretaker stress and burnout, raising the risk of elder abuse. Physically active seniors reduce their loss of mobility and increase overall health.
- Protecting elders from high-risk caregivers: The family of an elder should refuse caregiving duties to people with a history of abuse or violence. All caregivers should be in good psychological, emotional, and financial condition.
- Considering Financial Abuse: Anyone looking after the well-being of an older adult should be cautious of caregivers or friends who need financial help. Elders should also be told to be wary of phone, internet, and email solicitations.

WHY IS IT?
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas and bathes in an ADVERTISED shower and washes with ADVERTISED soap under an ADVERTISED blanket. He then puts on ADVERTISED clothes on a mattress and repeats this routine every morning why is it?

Is it because it feels better? Or is it better for your health? Or is it that you know you’ll be spending the money to buy these things and just feel guilty afterward? In either case, we believe that the ADVERTISED lifestyle is a gateway drug to a lifetime of ADVERTISED purchases. The problem isn’t that the items are bad; the problem is that you spend more money than you need to. And that’s where we come in.
