PACK THE PEWS NEXT SUNDAY AT 9:30 MASS
Commons invites you to join us for Pack the Pews for our Family Mass at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, March 15 in the church to celebrate the Queen of Angels community! STATIONS OF THE CROSS ON FRIDAYS IN LENT
Please join us in church each Friday in Lent to walk with Jesus in the Stations of the Cross. Stations will be held at 6:30 p.m. in English and 7:30 p.m. in Spanish, continuing this Friday, March 13. Eucharistic Benediction is included in the service. Follow in the footsteps of Jesus on the Way of Sorrows through this meaningful Lenten devotion. Ponder and pray over the pains and sacrifices of modern life as you are moved by the trials Jesus faced on the cross. This is a great faith opportunity for adults or families of all ages to pray together in a timeless Catholic devotion.

Mission Statement: Queen of Angels is a Christian Community joined in one Catholic Faith and nourished by the same sacramental life. We celebrate the diversity of our people through our spiritual life, sharing of faith and knowledge, enjoyment of one another, the concern for human needs and the stewardship of all we have. We undertake this challenge as Disciples of Jesus guided by His word and strengthened by His love.

It has been four months today since Cardinal Cupich’s decision was announced to unite Queen of Angels Parish and St. Matthias Parish in the Renew My Church process. While the merger does not come into effect until July 1, there has been much behind-the-scenes work to move forward with unifying our parish communities.

- The official decreed from the archdiocese regarding the upcoming merger with St. Matthias was received last month and is available on the parish website.
- We are waiting for the official announcement of the Pastor chosen to lead the new parish, which could be one of the current pastors or a different priest. That news is expected during the month of March.
- The decree gives the new parish the temporary name of Queen of Angels and St. Matthias Parish. Sometime after the Pastor is named, there will be a process for choosing a new name or formalizing the temporary name.
- We have been assigned a Grouping Project Manager, William Watt, who will be consulting with the merging parishes of Queen of Angels and St. Matthias, as well as St. Hilary and Transfiguration, during this time of transition.
- Members of the Parish Pastoral Councils and Finance Councils from both Queen of Angels and St. Matthias will be gathering in the evening this Tuesday, March 10, for a meet and greet.
- A Liturgy Team is forming, including asking St. Matthias Parish for representatives, to consider questions related to parish liturgies in the merger.
- Religious Education staff from both parishes have begun meeting about transitioning Religious Education and sacrament preparation programs. The parishes already share an RCIA program for adult sacramental preparation.

Please continue to pray for these efforts.

DIRECTIVES DURING TIMES OF WIDESPREAD ILLNESS

- All Priests, Deacons, Altar Servers and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion must wash their hands before Mass begins and use an alcohol based anti-bacterial solution before & after distributing Holy Communion.
  - This will be done while maintaining the reverence of the Mass.
  - All vessels used at Mass, once purified, are thoroughly washed with soap and hot water after each use.
- During all Masses and liturgies, the faithful are asked to temporarily refrain from:
  - Physical contact during the Sign of Peace (note: the Sign of Peace can be exchanged without physical contact).
  - Holy Communion via the chalice.
  - Holding hands during the Lord’s Prayer.
  - Using Holy Water fonts.
- Given the frequency of direct contact with saliva in the distribution of Holy Communion on the tongue, every consideration should be given by each individual to receive Communion reverently in open hands for the time being.
- If you are sick or are experiencing symptoms of sickness, you are not obliged to attend Mass, and even out of charity you ought not to attend. Catechism 2181 allows for missing Sunday Mass for serious reasons like illness.
- Finally, please join in praying for all those who are sick!

PRACTICES FOR HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS
Even in the happiest of relationships, situations can occur that create disagreements. In a healthy relationship, honest communication can help resolve this. Remember: your partner cannot read your mind! For healthier communication, try to:

- Find the Right Time. If something is bothering you and you would like to have a conversation about it, it can be helpful to find the right time to talk. Try to find a time when both you and your partner are calm and not distracted, stressed or in a rush.
- Talk Face to Face. Avoid talking about serious issues in writing. Text messages, letters and emails can be misinterpreted. Talk in person so there aren’t any unnecessary miscommunications. If you’re having trouble collecting your thoughts, consider writing them down ahead of time and reading them out loud to your partner.
- Do Not Attack. Even when we mean well, we can sometimes come across as harsh because of our tone or our word choice. Speak in a calm voice; avoid yelling. Using “you” can sound like you’re attacking, which will make your partner defensive and less receptive to your message. Instead, try using “I” or “we.” For example, say “I feel like we haven’t been as close lately” instead of “You have been distant with me.”
- Be Honest. Agree to be honest. Sometimes the truth hurts, but it’s the key to a healthy relationship. Admit that you aren’t always perfect and apologize when you make a mistake instead of making excuses.
- Check Your Body Language. Let your partner know you’re really listening by giving them your full attention: sit up, face them and make eye contact when speaking. Don’t take a phone call, text or play a video game when you’re talking!
- If you explain your hurt feelings and your partner sincerely apologies, let it go. Don’t bring up past issues if they’re not relevant.

• Todos los Sacerdotes, Diáconos, Monaguillos y Ministros Eucarísticos deben lavarse las manos antes de que comience la Misa y usar una solución antibacteriana con base de alcohol antes y después de distribuir la Sagrada Comunión.
• Esto se hará manteniendo mejor la reverencia de la Misa
• Todos los vasos usados en la misa, una vez purificados, sean lavados exhaustivamente con agua caliente y jabón después de cada uso.
• Durante todas las Misas y liturgias, se pide a los fieles que se abstengan temporalmente de:
  • El contacto físico durante el Saludo de la Paz (note: el Saludo de la Paz puede ser intercambiado sin contacto físico).
  • La Sagrada Comunión vía el cáliz.
  • Tomarse de las manos durante el Padrenuestro (Oración del Señor).
  • Usar fuentes de agua bendita.
• Dada la frecuencia del contacto directo con saliva en la distribución de la Sagrada Comunión en la lengua, todas las consideraciones deben ser tomadas por cada individuo para recibir por el momento la Comunión con reverencia en las manos abiertas.
• Si uds. están enfermos o experimentan síntomas de enfermedad, no están obligados a asistir a misa y que incluso por caridad, no deberían asistir. Catecismo 2181 permite que ud. falte a Misa por razones graves como enfermedad.
