DIRECTIVES DURING TIMES OF WIDESPREAD ILLNESS

• All Priests, Deacons, Altar Servers and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion must wash their hands before Mass begins and use an alcohol based anti-bacterial solution before & after distributing Holy Communion.
  • This will be done while maintaining the reverence of the Mass.
  • All vessels used at Mass, once purified, are thoroughly washed with soap and hot water after each use.

• During all Masses and liturgies, the faithful are asked to refrain from:
  • Physical contact during the Sign of Peace (note: the Sign of Peace can be exchanged without physical contact).
  • Holy Communion via the chalice.
  • Holding hands during the Lord’s Prayer.
  • Using Holy Water fonts.

Given the frequency of direct contact with saliva in the distribution of Holy Communion on the tongue, every consideration should be given by each individual to receive Communion reverently in open hands for the time being.

• If you are sick or are experiencing symptoms of sickness, you are not obliged to attend Mass, and even out of charity you ought not to attend. Catechism 2181 allows for missing Sunday Mass for serious reasons like illness.

• Finally, please join in praying for all those who are sick!

LINEAMIENTOS CONTRA ENFERMEDADES TRANSMISIBLES

• Todos los Sacerdotes, Diáconos, Monaguillos y Ministros Eucarísticos deben lavarse las manos antes de que comience la Misa y usar una solución antibacteriana con base de alcohol antes y después de distribuir la Comunión.
  • Esto se hará mientras se mantenga el respeto de la Misa.
  • Todos los vasos usados en la misa, una vez purificados, se lavarán exhaustivamente con agua caliente y jabón después de cada uso.

• Durante todas las Misas y liturgias, se pide a los fieles que se abstengan de:
  • El contacto físico durante el Saludo de la Paz (note: el Saludo de la Paz puede ser intercambiado sin contacto físico).
  • La Sagrada Comunión vía el cáliz.
  • Tomarse de las manos durante el Padrenuestro (Oración del Señor).
  • Usar fuentes de agua bendita.

Dada la frecuencia del contacto directo con saliva en la distribución de la Sagrada Comunión en la lengua, todas las consideraciones deben ser tomadas por cada individuo para recibir por el momento la Comunión con reverencia en las manos.

• Si uds. están enfermos o experimentan síntomas, no están obligados a asistir a misa y que incluso por caridad, no deberían asistir. Catecismo 2181 permite que ud. falte a Misa por razones graves como enfermedad.

• Finalmente, ¡por favor únanse en oración por todos aquellos que están enfermos!

RCIA AND THE SCRUTINIES: A TIME FOR SPIRITUAL PREPARATION, RENEWAL

The RCIA, which means the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a process for welcoming and forming the adults who come to our community seeking to be received as full members of the Catholic Church through the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist). RCIA participants attend weekly meetings which allow them to learn about and discuss various topics about the Church and Catholic life.

The Scrutinies take place on the Third, Fourth and Fifth Sundays of Lent at one of the parish Sunday Masses. During the Scrutinies, the RCIA candidates, and sometimes their Sponsors, are called forth to the altar and are presented to the community who prays especially for them. This gives the parish community the opportunity to see and get to know those who are seeking acceptance into the community and also to pray for them.

The Scrutinies are rites of self-searching and repentance. The Scrutinies originated early in Church history, and we know that St. Ambrose and St. Augustine celebrated them in the fourth and fifth centuries to mark the spiritual progress of the candidates who were preparing for entrance into the Church. The moral preparation of these candidates included prayers of exorcism, to drive out evil which kept them from embracing Christ. Today the Scrutinies still include a prayer of exorcism, in which the priest prays that the spirit of evil may be replaced by the spirit of good.

Although the name “Scrutiny” is a bit scary, the purpose of the Scrutinies is to examine the candidates’ spiritual readiness. The Scrutinies offer the candidates the support they need to approach the Sacraments worthily. The Scrutinies are not only meant to have an effect in the lives of the RCIA candidates, but rather in all of our lives. The Scrutinies also invite us, who are already full members of the Church, to embrace the same spirit of self-searching and repentance as the RCIA candidates. During Lent we renew our repentance as we see them scrutinized. At the Easter Vigil we all renew our baptismal promises as we see the RCIA candidates received into the Church. The Scrutinies remind us of the seriousness of our Christian life and inspire us to turn from evil and pursue good, to recommit to Christ.

This Sunday and over the next few weeks as we see the RCIA candidates called to the altar during the Scrutinies at the 11 a.m. Mass and later at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday, let us pray for them that this Lent may truly be a special time of spiritual preparation for them. May the Scrutinies inspire us to always be open to the spirit of good in our lives and let us encourage one another always in living our faith.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Please join us in church each Friday in Lent to walk with Jesus in the Stations of the Cross. Stations will be held at 6:30 p.m. in English and 7:30 p.m. in Spanish, continuing this Friday, March 20. Eucharistic Benediction is included in the service. Follow in the footsteps of Jesus on the Way of Sorrows through this meaningful Lenten devotion. Ponder and pray over the pains and sacrifices of modern life as you are moved by the trials Jesus faced on the cross. This is a great faith opportunity for adults or families of all ages to pray together in a timeless Catholic devotion.

HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN PARENTS AND CHILDREN

Connection between parents and children is vital to a healthy relationship. Kids who feel strongly connected to their parents want to cooperate if they can. If they think parents are on their side, that parents truly love and support them even as they correct them when children misbehave, deceive or speak rudely, they are motivated to follow the parents’ lead.

Researchers remind us that we need 5 positive interactions to every negative interaction to keep any relationship healthy. And since parents spend so much time guiding — that is, correcting, reminding, scolding, criticizing, nagging and yelling - it’s important to spend 5 times as much time in positive connection.

A little Reality Check: there are times it’s all we can do to meet our child’s basic needs. So we have to establish a routine, a pattern that builds in daily habits of connection. Such a routine helps heal the disconnections of daily life and builds emotional intelligence. Some examples:

1. Aim for 12 hugs or physical connections every day. Not a hugger? A pat on the back, a kiss on the cheek, a gentle arm squeeze — all can help convey parental affection.

2. Bring a light touch to your daily conversation. Humor and laughter can be important tools when used right. Don’t make a big deal out of honest mistakes and be ready to offer help if they are feeling overwhelmed. They may not want your help but they should know you empathize and understand.

3. Turn off your phone when you interact with your child. That act alone can signal that you consider them important enough to earn all your attention.

GIVECENTRAL MEETS PARISH NEED

Thank you to all who are now making donations to Queen of Angels Parish through our online donation service. Your regular gifts can be made consistently and easily as you continue to support our Catholic community. Contributions can also be made on a one-time basis without creating a giving profile. Not only is it convenient for parishioners, it reduces the risks associated with transporting checks and cash, and makes it easier for the parish to budget for the future. Visit GiveCentral.org to sign up for donating online.

PIZZA SALES TO SUPPORT SCOUTS

Take home deep-dish goodness and help your local Scout BSA troop! Troop 894 will be selling Lou Malnati’s frozen pizza coupons this Sunday and next week, March 15 and 22, after the 8 a.m., 9:30 a.m., and 11 a.m. Masses. Cost is $13 for one, or $25 for two, and you have a choice of four flavors—cheese, sausage, pepperoni, or spinach. This is quite a bargain as frozen pizzas start at $13.25! Scouts will also be selling cans of Virginia Diner nuts.

Money raised will go toward camping equipment and the cost of the troop’s annual summer trip to Owasippe in Michigan. We only have 50 coupons on-hand, but if you miss out, don’t worry; we will be taking orders for coupons to be delivered in 2 to 3 weeks. Coupons are good until October 31, and are valid at any Lou Malnati’s location that sells frozen pizzas to take home. Thank you for your support of Troop 894!
COMMUNITY FAMILY MASS

Commons invites you to join in our Community Family Mass at 9:30 a.m. today, Sunday, March 15 in the church. Children from the school and Religious Education programs will be participating in the ministries of the Mass, and a guest witness will share his story after the Homily. Help us continue to build a community spirit of faith by joining us at this special celebration. The reception after the Mass is now canceled out of caution.

YOUR HOME AWAY FROM HOME
We hope every family finds a home on the Queen of Angels campus. At the same time, we are aware that we live in a large city and our buildings are at a busy crossroads. Please keep children supervised while in our parish buildings and on the grounds for their safety, security and your peace of mind.
Why is it?
A man wakes up after sleeping under an advertised blanket, mattress, and pajamas. He bathes in an advertised shower, shaves with an advertised razor, brushes his teeth with advertised toothpaste, drinks a cup of advertised coffee, drives to work in an advertised car, and refuses to advertise believing it doesn't pay. Later, if business is poor he advertises it for sale.
