THE GLORY OF THE DIVINE WAY

Today's readings draw us into ageless, vibrant depths. Followers of God's law, we belong to ancient traditions. Children of God, we marvel at the freshness of creation. The Old Testament readings, from Sirach and the Psalms, celebrate the rich blessings we receive when we observe God's commands—not because we are slaves to the law, but because the law gives life in abundance. Saint Paul's Letter to the Corinthians confirms the glory of divine law, but warns that God's ways tend to be unpopular and misunderstood in this world. Paul speaks of the ancient wisdom of God, which is mysteriously both "hidden" and "revealed." God does not have secret codes that we earthly mortals cannot understand; in love, God reveals the glory of the divine way in Jesus. Saint Matthew's Gospel emphasizes the importance of living in God's law, enlivened by a deep and personal relationship with Jesus.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's still months away, but parish ministers, especially if they are involved in the catechumenate, have their eyes on Lent and the Easter Triduum. Until fairly recent times, the last few days before Easter were shaped by an awareness of the Passion, but the faithful were left to their own devices about how to engage with these mysteries. A thousand years ago, the Easter Vigil as a solemn and central moment of initiation had vanished. By the early 1950s it was a minor moment in parish life, celebrated on Holy Saturday morning, usually with only the priests and a handful of invited guests. Most people understood it as necessary only for blessing the paschal candle and preparing the Easter water. People who were children during World War II sometimes remember that the weekly noontime test of the air-raid sirens on Holy Saturday signaled the end of Lent. Today, of course, we see Holy Saturday as entirely within the paschal fast, and hardly the time for children to be tearing through the plastic grass looking for jelly beans and chocolate eggs. These memories point to a total collapse of the once-central liturgies of the Christian year. This impoverishment of the liturgy was mostly an accident of history. The root cause was the loss of Lent as a time focused on the final formation of catechumens for the Easter sacraments. By 1880, scholars began to piece together a vision of what once had been, and slowly, at first in a handful of monasteries in Europe, pieces of the tradition were rediscovered and celebrated.

2023 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

I invite you to spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal materials you should have received in your bulletin or in the mail. The Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection: It is a pledged commitment to make a gift over time. Your pledge can be made payable in installments. Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services to answer the call of “Walking with Jesus.” If you received your pledge form in the mail please complete it and mail it back. This year, we also encourage our parishioner to make their annual Catholic Appeal gifts online at annualcatholicappeal.com.

CAMPAÑA CATÓLICA ANNUAL 2023

Le invite a pasar algún tiempo esta semana reflexionando sobre los materiales de la Campaña Católica Anual que debería haber recibido en su boletín o en el correo. La Campaña Católica es muy diferente de una colecta especial que ocurre una sola vez. Es un compromiso de hacer una donación durante el tiempo. Su promesa puede hacerse a plazos. Cada promesa marca la diferencia porque todas las parroquias participan en la campaña y los dones de muchos permiten a nuestra arquidiócesis entregar los ministerios y servicios necesarios para responder al llamado de “Andar el camino con Jesús.” Si usted recibió su formulario de promesa en el correo, por favor llénelo y envíelo de vuelta. Este año, también animamos a nuestros feligreses a hacer sus donativos a la Campaña Católica Anual en línea en annualcatholicappeal.com.

Many thanks to all who sacrifice and share to support the ministries of Queen of Apostles Parish!
